My Personal Creed

I am [name], the one dearly beloved by God Almighty.

I love the Lord passionately. I love spending quality and quantity time with Him. I live, move and have my being in Him.

I long to always bring Him great pleasure; I consider Him when I think, speak and act and I never want to displease Him in any way, no matter how small.

I am a [man/woman] of prayer. I pray for people, souls and nations constantly.

My greatest desire is to spend my life being the [man/woman] God has formed me to be, bringing Him pleasure and being a blessing to my world.

I am [beautiful/handsome] inside and out. I am graceful and elegant. I have peace of mind and body. I have stamina and strength. My life is made even more radiant by my inner unshakeable joy and confidence in God.

I love and honour my [husband/wife] and I bring [him/her] pleasure and pride every day.

I am a present and loving [father/mother] to my children. I pray for them and care for them excellently. I am deliberate about helping them grow well and grow right.

I am a kind and loving relative and friend; and I have close, healthy and godly friendships and relationships.

I work with wisdom, excellence and diligence and I bless and help people with the works of my hands.

I am financially blessed. I have more than enough to cover my needs and obligations and be a generous blessing to good works.

I am a channel of God's goodness to everyone around me. I draw people to God with every area of my life.

I am bold and fearless in my God-given roles and pursuits. I am confident in who God has made me and I do not compare myself to others or envy them.

I am a [man/woman] of faith, favour and grace. I have a joyful, thankful heart.

I am God's own delight.
